Change that Mentality – Ps Heinrich

16 Aug 2026

WELCOME

Welcome everyone.

Icebreaker: Think of something you used to think or do a certain way; now you see it completely differently.

(e.g., I used to think success meant being busy all the time and having money. Now I think success means having peace.)

WORD

CHURCH = GOD's HOUSE where His children gather

"...You belong to God's family, as all God's people do...Because you belong to Christ, God is building you all together to become his house. That is where God lives by his Spirit." – Ephesians 2:19, 22 [EASY]

Ask 1 or 2 members to share how coming together with God's children in God's House on Sundays has impacted them.

STOP CHASING THE NEXT BREAKTHROUGH

Message Recap

God is still the all-powerful, miracle-working God—but He never called us to live from breakthrough to breakthrough.

Sometimes we treat God's grace like a "get out of jail free card." We fail to plan, make poor decisions, create chaos, and then expect God to perform a miracle to rescue us.

God absolutely does miracles, but His desire is not just to rescue us—it is to mature us.

He wants to take us from constantly needing bread to becoming seed sowers. From being dependent on someone else's faith to developing our own. From reacting to life to taking responsibility. From allowing our circumstances to control our emotions to learning to control our thoughts.

And Christianity was never meant to be a burden where we are constantly waiting for "someday" to finally enjoy life.

We can trust God, grow in faith, take responsibility, change our minds, and enjoy the life He has given us—right where we are.

1. FROM A MIRACLE MENTALITY TO LIVING BY FAITH

READ:

Exodus 16:4

"Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day..."

God provided the miracle of manna, but the Israelites still had to go out and gather it every day. God gives enough for one day and they had to trust God for tomorrow.

God provided—but they had to participate. There is a man part.

Deuteronomy 29:5

"And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet."

God sustained Israel in the wilderness, but they remained there far longer than necessary.

Sometimes we can become so comfortable with God rescuing us that we never learn how to build, plan, grow and take responsibility.

We don't need a miracle every time something goes wrong.

- Sometimes we need a plan.

- Sometimes we need discipline.
- Sometimes we need to make a different decision.
- Sometimes we need to stop blaming the devil and take responsibility for what is actually within our control.

KEY THOUGHT:

God wants to bless you, but He also wants to teach you how to steward what He gives you.

A lot of what we call a “generational curse” can actually be a generational mindset—patterns, habits and ways of thinking that have never been challenged.

When we come to Christ, we don't have to remain trapped in the same patterns.

ASK:

- Is there something you have called a “curse” that could actually be a mindset or habit that needs to change?
- What is one area where you need to take more responsibility?

2. FROM BREAD EATER TO SEED SOWER

READ:

2 Corinthians 9:10

“Now may He who supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown...”

God gives us bread to eat and seed to sow.

The goal is not to remain an eater forever. Spiritual maturity means moving from constantly asking:

“What can God do for me?” to asking: “How can God use me to bless someone else?”

They don't only come to church to be encouraged—they leave church and encourage someone else.

They don't only want a breakthrough—they become part of someone else's breakthrough.

KEY THOUGHT:

Don't spend your whole life waiting for someone else to feed you. Become someone who can feed others.

Your testimony, experience, encouragement, gifts and faith can become seed in someone else's life.

ASK:

- Would you say you are currently more of an eater or a sower?
- Who is someone God has placed around you that you could be pouring into?
- What is stopping you from becoming more of a blessing to others?

3. YOU CAN CHANGE YOUR MIND

READ:

Romans 12:2

“Be transformed by the renewing of your mind.”

You may not be able to control everything that happens to you, but you can choose:

- How you see it
- What you believe about it
- What you focus on
- What you do next

Supporting Scriptures:

Ephesians 4:22–24 — Be renewed in the spirit of your mind.

Philippians 4:8 — Think about what is true, noble, right, pure, lovely and admirable.

Colossians 3:2 — Set your mind on things above.

2 Corinthians 10:5 — Take every thought captive and make it obedient to Christ.

Isaiah 26:3 — God gives perfect peace to the person whose mind is steadfast because they trust Him.

1 Corinthians 2:16 — “But we have the mind of Christ.”

Your circumstances don't have to determine your mindset.

Two people can experience the exact same situation and walk away with completely different perspectives.

Why?

Because perspective changes everything.

“When you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change.” — Ps Heinrich

4. DON'T MAKE A FEELING A STATE

A feeling is something you experience. A state is somewhere you remain.

You can feel sad without becoming a sad person. You can feel disappointed without living in disappointment.

You can have a bad day without deciding:

“My life is bad.”

One difficult situation can sometimes take over our entire world. It affects our thoughts, relationships, motivation, faith and outlook. But you have the ability to change the state you're in.

SAY THIS:

“I can experience an emotion without allowing that emotion to become my identity.”

Being emotionally mature doesn't mean you don't have emotions.

It means your emotions don't have to control every decision you make.

ASK:

When something difficult happens, what do you normally focus on?

- What happened?
- Who caused it?
- How unfair it is?
- How you feel?
- Or What am I going to do about it?

5. FIND YOUR EQUALISER

Life will knock you off rhythm sometimes. You will have disappointments. You will receive bad news. Things won't always work out. People will hurt you. You will lose motivation.

That's when you need your equaliser—something that helps bring you back.

Your equalizer could be:

- Prayer, Worship, God's Word
- Going for a walk
- Go for coffee
- Take a nap
- Watch tv
- Getting back into your routine

You don't have to stay where the situation put you.

GET BACK INTO ROUTINE

Sometimes you don't need a huge breakthrough.

Sometimes you just need to:

Get up. Get dressed.

Get moving. Pray.

Read the Word.

Do the next thing.

Didn't work yesterday?

Try again.

Lost your motivation?

Start again.

Fell off your routine?

Get back on.

You don't always have to feel ready before you start.

Sometimes you start, and your feelings catch up later.

6. CHRISTIANITY IS MEANT TO BE ENJOYED

READ:

Genesis 12:7

God didn't create us simply to perform religious duties or constantly ask Him for things.

God wants relationship with us.

He wants us to enjoy His presence.

Sometimes we live with a “not yet” mentality:

“I'll be happy when...”

“When I have more money...”

“When my children are older...”

“When this problem is sorted...”

“When I get that breakthrough...”

“When things finally work out...”

But the danger is that we can spend our entire lives waiting for a future moment to finally enjoy the life we have today. Think about the things you have today that you once prayed for. The things that once felt like a miracle can eventually become the things we take for granted.

KEY THOUGHT:

Don't become so focused on the next breakthrough that you forget to enjoy the blessing you're living in today.

Our relationship with God should also not only be about asking Him for things.

Sometimes we should simply be with Him.

7. GOD IS NOT YOUR BAILOUT

READ:

Numbers 14:22

“...who have seen My glory and the signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have put Me to the test...”

God is not against helping us.

But He doesn't want us trapped in a cycle of:

Mess up → panic → pray for rescue → get rescued → repeat.

God wants us to grow.

He wants us to learn.

He wants us to become wiser.

He wants us to develop character.

KEY THOUGHT:

God doesn't just want to rescue you from the same mess repeatedly. He wants to teach you how to stop creating the same mess.

Wise people don't only pray when the crisis comes.

They plan ahead.

They make wise decisions before the crisis.

They build structure before everything falls apart.

8. SETBACKS ARE NORMAL

READ:

Deuteronomy 29:5

“And I have led you forty years in the wilderness...”

Every area of life will have setbacks. That doesn't necessarily mean something has gone wrong. It's simply part of life.

Think about sport: even the best player doesn't score every time they touch the ball. But they don't quit playing because they missed. They keep going.

Sometimes we give the devil too much credit. Not every setback is a spiritual attack. Not every bad day is the devil. Sometimes life is simply life.

The question isn't:

“Why is this happening to me?”

The better question is:

“What am I going to do next?”

In Christ, we have already overcome.

So setbacks don't have to knock us out.

KEY THOUGHT:

A setback is an event—not an identity.

ASK:

- Where have you recently quit because of a setback?
- How do you normally respond when things don't go your way?
- What would it look like to simply get back up and keep going?

9.THE BATTLEFIELD IS BETWEEN YOUR EARS

Your thoughts can become your biggest obstacle.

You can have one situation in front of you and then create an entire world around it in your mind.

That's why we need to learn to challenge our thoughts.

ASK YOURSELF:

- Is this thought true?
- Does this agree with God's Word?

- Is this thought helping me or controlling me?
- What would God say about this situation?
- What is the next right thing I can do?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. What is one mindset you know you need to change?
2. Where have you been waiting for a miracle when you actually need to take a practical step?
3. Would you describe yourself more as an eater or a sower right now? Why?
4. What usually happens when you allow your emotions to control your decisions?
5. What is your personal “equaliser” when life knocks you off track?
6. What negative thought do you need to replace with God's truth?
7. What is something you currently have that you once prayed for?
8. What is one area where you need to stop waiting for a rescue and start taking responsibility?
9. What setback do you need to stop allowing to define you?
10. What is ONE thing you can do differently this week?

CONCLUSION

Becoming blessed is exciting, but learning how to stay blessed takes something more: diligence, structure, wisdom and character.

God will always be our provider.

He will always be our helper.

He is still the miracle-working God.

But He doesn't want us spending our entire lives chasing the next breakthrough.

He wants us to grow up, take responsibility, renew our minds, walk by faith, become seed sowers, handle setbacks, and enjoy His presence.

WORKS

Jesus said: “As the Father sent me, so I am sending you.” (John 20:21)

Ask the home cell members:

- How they are going to be Jesus’s hands and feet to the people in their world, especially those on the Harry & Sally list?
- o Invite this person to church on Sunday so they may experience God’s love and be saved.

Pray together for +- 10 minutes for:

- An outpouring of God’s love in the hearts of our members – REVIVAL.
- The lost people on your Harry & Sally list and for the homecell to GO and INVADE their world.
